TERM 2 WEEK 8 17th June, 2013

Dear Parents and Carers,

I am very concerned about the number of children who are arriving at school without jumpers in this extremely cold weather. We have been providing warm clothing for students who need it and we will continue to do this. We would appreciate your support in ensuring students wear correct school uniform to school each day. Support is also available with correct school uniform if required.

EAT WELL 2 LEARN WELL

Operates at the school each morning and is available for all students free of charge. A warm healthy breakfast is a great way to start the school day. Some of our students have breakfast at home and then again at school.

NAIDOC WEEK

NAIDOC Week celebrations will be held at the school next week commencing with the opening ceremony, flag raising and an assembly at 9.30am in the school hall on Monday morning. Everyone is invited to join us as we celebrate. Visiting artists and story tellers will be working with students on Tuesday and Wednesday. The finished art work will be displayed on Friday in the hall and will be available for sale. Friday will be a major cultural awareness day commencing at 1.00pm with delicacies prepared by students for a number of countries for you to taste. Wednesday will be aspirations day. All children are encouraged to come dressed as a person they aspire to be like when they grow up. It may be a famous sportsperson or actor, a doctor, a politician, a teacher, a fireman or a policeman. It may be a parents, carer or an elder who has inspired them.

Children will be asked to give a brief talk in class about who they are and why they aspire to be like that person. Prizes will be awarded! I encourage all parents and community members to join us as we celebrate this very important week at Hillvue Public School.

A/Executive Principal

From the Classroom.... 2J

In 2J we have been reading, There's a Sea in my Bedroom written by Margaret Wild. We have learnt many writing tools to write as well as Margaret Wild. Enjoy reading some of our excellent writing pieces.

Jamye was scared of the shade sail at the pool. It was a huge flipper that squashed him, made him cold and buried him. But he liked swimming in the pool. He liked going to the deep end, diving off the edge and touching the bottom the pool. Then, one hot day, when he had to go under the sail, he realised that the shade sail made him cool. Now every day when he goes to the pool, he sits under the shade sail. He's not scared of the shade sail. Not at all, not one bit. Thomas

Hollie was scared of the dark. It was a big scary monster that showed no light, made scary shadows on the wall and played with her mind. She didn't like the dark. Not at all, not one bit. But she liked night lights when she was in the dark. When the night light was on everything changed. The light changed colours in her bedroom every minute. There were rainbow colours and there were pictures. The first picture the night light showed was a flower and the second was her family. They made Hollie feel safe. The one night the night light went out! But Hollie knew her Mum and Dad were right outside her door. It was her eighth birthday and she was never scared of the dark again. Kida and Breanna

Taya was frightened of the forest. It was a dark haunted house that tripped her over, pulled her hair and kept her lost. She didn't like the forest. Not at all, not one bit. But she liked collecting sticks. She had long straight ones, ones that looked like walking sticks and tiny ones. Then one day she went looking for sticks. She went into the forest. She forgot all about her fear. Meleah

Meleah was frightened of the purple starlight. It was a little star shape that scared her all the time and shone in her eyes. But she did like to look at all the other stars. She saw pink ones and green ones and red and blue ones. They looked like diamonds. Her favourite star was the blue starlight that glowed in the dark. It had sparkles all over it and it had diamonds on the end. One night the blue starlight came down and sat in her hand. It floated up with her to the purple starlight. Now she was not scared of the purple starlight anymore. Not at all, not one bit. Taya

Mr Shaw was scared of the sun. It was a huge round monster that gobbled him up, burnt his skin and took his shoes. But he liked collecting flowers. He had round shaped ones, some that looked like trumpets and some that looked like triangles. They were yellow and red and pink and blue. The one day he found an umbrella. It was shaped like a circle, brown on the outside and purple inside. He took it home and put it in the cabinet beside his bed. The next morning his father came in and said, "Let's go for a walk in the sun." Mr Shaw said yes because the umbrella would block the sun out! He wasn't scared anymore. Kiani
